Description

AGRA, the most important agriculture and food industry fair in Slovenia and in the neighboring regions of four EU countries, is held already for the 55th year every year in Gornja Radgona, a crossroad between Slovenia, Austria, Croatia and Hungary. It serves the tradition of good farming and quality food with an innovative freshness of new technologies and skills, with broad international participation, cheerful events and professional lectures from Saturday 26th to Thursday 31st August 2017. For those of you who offer traditional quality and innovative views of the future, AGRA is an indispensable business, professional and promotional exhibition event. It is unique in attaining specific target partners with whom you wish to have closer contacts. The fair has the power to attract more than 120.000 quality visitors, who from the neighbouring regions of four countries bring specific, qualified and high purchasing power supported by market demand.
