Description

Slovenia-Nigeria Chamber of Commerce was founded in the Republic of Slovenia as a non-governmental, bi-lateral organization; created with the aim to build, promote and facilitate trade and investment activities between Slovenia and Nigeria. The establishment and activities of the Chamber are dedicated to developing a mutually beneficial and concrete economic relations between the two countries. SNCC also functions as a bridge between Slovenia and Nigeria as well as countries in Europe and Africa. Gradually, SNCC has developed strong partnerships with other Chambers and similar business organisations, enabling it to build a robust business network that translates to opportunities for its members and partners.
